FARM NEWS

Four Appomattox flue-tobacco growers attended the annual meeting of the Flue-Cured Cooperative Stabilization Corporation in Raleigh, N .C. last Friday. Those attending were Floyd Fleshman, Henry Mann, Charlie Scott Rush, and Clarence May.
Highlight of the program was the annual report given by L. T. Weeks, General Manager.
The following is an excerp from his remarks: "As of April 20, 1959, stabilization had on hand 623.1 million pounds. It is a recognized fact that much of the tobacco stazilization now holds in its inventory is classified as undesirable; however, if the supply is brought nearer in line with demand that it is now or has been for the past three or four years, much of it would be desirable that is now branded as undesirable.
"With the 1958 crop only 3.9 million pounds have been sold, since it was placed on the market on January 12, 1959. There are three main factors which contribute to this: (1) the long supply situation; (2) the use of unacceptable varieties in some areas, plus poor cultural practices and (3) the use of chemicals for control of suckers, principally Malic-Hydrocide (MH-30).
From the standpoint of membership, stabilization continues to be the largest cooperative in the entire world, with a membership of 576,240 members.
Since Stabilization begnn operatins on August 12, 1946, $991,793,238.57 has been borrowed from Commodity Credit Corporation. For the same period, $619,970,101.54 has been repaid to CCC in principal alone. As of April 30, 1959, Stabilization owed CCC $371,823,132.02, which is $10,451,840.07 more than it owed a year ago.

MURRAY - SANDERS

The marriage of Miss Sarah Frances Sanders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Garrett Sanders, to James Thomas Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Thomas Murray, of Farmville, Va., took place Saturday, June 27 at Beals Memorial Presbyterian Church in Pamplin. The Rev. William H. Chappell officiated. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballet length gown of white lace and net over taffeta. Her veil of illusion was held by a tiera of sequens and seed pearls. She carried a prayer book topped by white rosebuds and baby's breath.
Miss Peggy Dawn Garrette was maid of honor. She wore a gown of green batiste with matching headband and carried a spray hand bouquet of yellow daisies.
The other attendants were Miss Irma Lee Shelton, Miss Barbara Gilliam, Mrs. Elsie Burrell, Miss Alice Davis, Miss Charlene Ranson, and Miss Mary Edith Ranson. They wore gowns of yellow, pink, and blue with matching headbands, and carried spray hand bouquets of pink, blue and white daisies.
Clyde Deaton, uncle of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Gerald Price, Jimmy Price, Johnnie Candda, and Lawrence Johnson.
The flower girl was little Betty Jean Bryant and the ring bearer was Robbie Price.
Just before the ceremony, Mrs. Robert Harris sang "O Perfect Love," accompanied by Dr. John Cunningham, who provided the music preceding and during the ceremony.
After their bridal trip, the couple will make their home in Farmville.

Short Shorts

Platsburgh, N. Y.- How short are short shorts? The City Commission didn't say when it banned them, and the issue is still unresolved. So when police arrested Mrs. Lise Fournier, 21, of Montreal, recently had her husband measure her shorts on the spot.
Currently it's up to Judge Irving Goldman to decide whether 12 ¼ inches is too short. While he is pondering the matter, he released Mrs. Fournier on $5 bail.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Don't "Check" With Red!
Red Johnson, owner of the local hardware store, likes to keep business simple—"pay as you go," says Red.
Recently, to emphasize the point, Red had a sign painted for the store window. In big red letters, it read: "Please — absolutely no checks accepted — pay in cash only."
When the sign painter had finished the sign, he delivered it to Red and named his price — ten dollars. "Very reasonable," said Red. And the next thing you know he was handing the fellow a check for ten dollars!
From where I sit, some rules we make boil down to "don't do as I do, do as I say." It reminds me of a friend who drank nothing but iced tea and criticized the fact that I preferred a glass of beer. That's not only annoying, it's intolerant. Good neighbors should make tolerance the rule with more "do" and less "say."
